Sir,

Greetings of peace, love, and all good!

The Samuel F. Adelan Foundation is truly grateful for your continued support in championing culture and the arts. As we move forward with SAMa-SAMang Sining at Wika: Echoes of Literature & Arts (SAMSwela), originally set for March 22, 2025, at the Isabela Capitol Amphitheatre, we recognize that great events are not just about execution but also about timing.

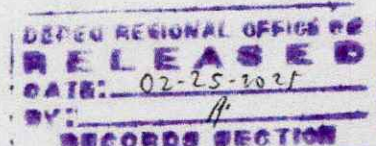

To create the best experience for everyone involved, we are moving SAMSwela to November 2025. This adjustment gives both organizers and participants the time needed to prepare, making the competition even more exciting and meaningful. Schools have shown incredible enthusiasm, and this shift ensures they have the space to fully take part and showcase their talents at their very best.

We truly appreciate your support in facilitating this rescheduling. Your role in making this event a success has always been invaluable, and we are grateful for your continued commitment to initiatives that empower the youth through arts and culture.

Once the final date is set, we will provide the necessary updates. Thank you for your trust and partnership. It is always an honor to work alongside you in making a lasting impact.

Respectfully,

LOVELY ROSE L. ADELAN
Deputy Administrator
