RE: Call for Nominations for the National Search for Hometown Heroes 2025

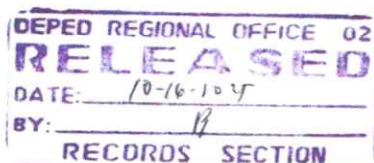

Greetings and Felicitations!

The Benita & Catalino Yap Foundation is pleased to announce that it is now accepting nominations for the 8th National Search for Hometown Heroes (S4HH), until November 17, 2025. This national recognition program aims to recognize individuals who have consistently made a positive impact on their communities.

In this regard, we are reaching out to your office to inquire if you know someone whom you think is deserving of this recognition. Moreover, we would also like to enlist your help in disseminating this information.

I have taken the liberty of attaching the Official Briefing Kit for the S4HH 2025, which contains the documentary requirements, Awards Process, as well as the important dates to consider.

We hope to receive a positive response from you!

Very respectfully yours,

Aaron Ralph F. Cruz

THE AWARD PROCESS

The following flowchart details the award process which all nominees in the National Search for Hometown Heroes, as well as other recognition programs of BCYF, must undergo.

1

The S4HH Committee will accept and review submitted nominations. This committee receives nominations, or add its own nominees.

2

From this, the S4HH Committee will interview the nominees then decide who will be the Finalists, and recommend who will be the Awardee/s.

3

The BCYF Board of Trustees will review the recommendation from the S4HH Committee, and decide who shall be the Awardee/s.
